The Difference that Makes a Difference

(and makes 'Difference-Makers'!)

The call to ministry comes with the need for thoughtful preparation. As you consider the options for ministry training, we think you'll be impressed by what make a Taylor education unique.

Taylor is responding to the needs of adult learners across Canada and around the world, changing the way we deliver theological education and ministry training; we are also adding more online, modular and weekend courses to our regular semester-long classroom instruction.

Students from many denominations, ethnic and cultural backgrounds are studying at Taylor Seminary. Our emphasis on spiritual formation, practical training and field education are key distinctives that prepare Taylor grads for a lifetime of joyful discipleship and effective service.

The Taylor difference makes a difference! As Hudson Taylor once said, "A little thing is a little thing but faithfulness in little things is a big thing"
