Note: Online final exams are scheduled by the instructor of the course.
The instructor will provide specific instructions for 'take-home' exams.

- Faculty members are not at liberty to reschedule any final examination, or to allow any student to write an examination at another time than the scheduled time. Students who propose not to take an examination at the scheduled time must apply to the Academic Committee.
- Students who miss an examination due to a last-minute emergency or illness must notify Lori (780-431-5201) that they are unable to attend prior to the scheduled start time of the examination. Alternate arrangements to write the missed examination(s) must then be made through the Academic Committee.
