

Taylor Seminary Bursaries and Scholarships Criteria for Assistance

Students must be in good standing to be eligible for financial assistance.

A 'full-time' student is a program student with an academic load of at least 18 credits per academic year. A 'half-time' student is a program student with an academic load of 12 to 17 credits.

The Financial Aid Committee will consider the academic load of the applicant during the review of applications. Applicants are required to register for the 2018-2019 academic year BEFORE submitting the Financial Aid Application form.

All bursaries and scholarships will be distributed based on the availability of funds. Additional funds of bursaries and/or scholarships will be distributed at the discretion of the Financial Aid Committee.
