

an UPDATE
for friends of TAYLOR

Dear friend of Taylor

Warm greetings from snowy Edmonton! We trust you are well -- and warm!

The Bridge -- now Online.

The Fall 2013 edition of The Bridge is arriving in homes this week, and has also been posted online. The cover story deals with former Taylor prof Tyler Williams, now senior pastor at Greenfield Community Church. There is an article covering the loss suffered by the Dewey family this summer. We also describe the new Audio Archives on our website, profile a recent alumnus (Andrew Eising, '08), and catch you up with news and notes from various other members of the Taylor family.

You can read this edition of The Bridge on our website; there is also a copy posted on the website of digital publisher ISSUU here.

As always, we are in need of your contributions for the back cover. We always feature a piece of artwork created by a member of the Taylor family, and would love to receive a photo from you of a painting, photo, sculpture or other piece of art you have made. Send it to thebridge@taylor-edu.ca

Audio Archives

Taylor is pleased to announce that a growing number of educational resources have been made available through a new Audio Archive on our website. Many of our educational and training events in recent years have been recorded, and you can now listen and learn from these lectures, workshops and conferences at no charge.

Simply visit the Taylor Audio Archives here; this page includes direct links to some of the most recent and most-requested recordings, and you can also browse all available recordings by clicking on the link at the top of that page.

We will be adding other recordings in the weeks and months ahead, so bookmark this page and come back often to take advantage of these rich resources.

Christmas Hours

The Taylor offices will be closed over the Christmas break starting on December 24th, re-opening on January 2, 2014.

January Intersession

The New Year always begins with January Intersession -- the modular courses that allow students to fit a whole course into a one-week period right after the holidays. This year, students will be studying either the Petrine Epistles with Dr. Syd Page, or Christian Worship with Dr. Allan Effa. Please pray with us that these courses will be meaningful and enlightening for everyone who takes part.

And remember, if you'd like to join us for regular semester courses or for one of our modular course weeks, please remember that we would love to have you as part of our learning community! Contact Rick Heavenor at 780-431-5215 or email Rick@TaylorSeminary.ca with any questions.

Merry Christmas

This time of year can seem so frenzied -- the pressures of various celebrations can take some of the joy out of the season. Advent and Christmas can and should be seasons of reflection and of waiting and hoping; it is our prayer that the busy-ness of this season will be minimized, and that the mystery and holiness of Emmanuel will become the focus and highlight for each of us once more.

God bless, and Merry Christmas! Thank you so much for your continued partnership with us in ministry preparation.

Your friends at Taylor College and Seminary